West, chief scout executive, national office, New York, N. Y., who will broadcast the same lecture from station WEAF, New York city. This lecture will also be broadcast from fifty of the largest stations throughout the United States.

SEEK $1,200,000 FUND.

College Alumnae Club to Aid De-servicing Girl Graduates.

Raising of a $1,200,000 endowment fund to provide deserving girls graduating from the Washington high schools with opportunities for securing a college education will be undertaken by the College Alumnae Club of Washington. A drive for funds has been started and the campaign will continue until May, 1923.

The officers of the club for the ensuing year are: Mrs. Lucy M. Holmes, president; Dr. Eva B. Dykes, vice president; Miss Juanita P. Howard, recording secretary; Miss Carrie E. S. Lee, corresponding secretary, and Miss Ruth E. Weatherless, treasurer. The executive committee is composed of Mrs. H. B. Allen and Miss Grace Coleman.

The chairman of the committees are as follows: Arts group, Dr. Simpson; drama, Miss Brooks; house decoration, Mrs. Anthony; music, Miss Pinkney; poetry, Miss Mustapha; politics, Miss McNeil; and social service, Mrs. Wilder.

The club is hoping that each group will over-subscribe its quota and a substantial sum be realized toward the scholarship fund.

D. S. C. GIVEN EX-SERGEANT.

The President has awarded a distinguished service cross to Louis T. Day of Medford, Mass., formerly sergeant, 103d Infantry, 26th Division, for displaying remarkable coolness and courage in action at Apremont, France, May 20, 1918.

The distinguished service medal for exceptional service in the world war has been awarded to Lieut. Col. John O'Neill, Transportation Corps, U. S. A., and to Rear E. Tod, commander, U. S. N., utilities officer at Brest, France, for the successful handling of transports and cargo ships.

A Beautiful Complexion & Admiration

Ladies—A few days' treatment with CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS will do more to clean up the skin than all the beauty treatments in creation.

An imperfect complexion is caused by a sluggish liver.

Millions of people old, young and middle age take them for Biliousness, Dizziness, Sciatica, Headache, Upset Stomach and for Sallow, Puffy and Bloated Skin. They end the misery of Constipation.

Small Pill—Small Dose—Small Price
